

MarryJane GmbH

Since our foundation in 2017 MarryJane GmbH has become one of the leading CBD and hemp companies worldwide. Our products are recognized upon our clients for the high quality and biological CBD content. Shortly after our foundation we are increasing our production capacity with the opening of a new production location near Basel.

We are looking for:

Laboratory Operators

Applicants must fulfill the following criterias:

- Five (5) years of working experience in this sector
- Chemical studies completed with a diploma or degree
- Good knowledge of organic chemistry
- Availability to work in shifts
- Excellent knowledge of English. Knowledge of German is a plus.
- Applied computer knowledge

Main responsibilities and duties:

- Handle the production and documentation of laboratory equipment and chain of custody.
- Conditioning and functioning of new generation laboratory equipment.
- Knowledge of standard laboratory tasks such as filtering, distillation, centrifugation and similar tasks.
- Knowledge of fractional distillation.
- Knowledge of flash gas chromatography / HPLC.
- Knowledge in liquid chromatography for product purification.
- Implementation of quality management and traceability standards.

We offer:

- Permanent contract for an initial period of 6 months with the possibility of a 2-year renovation period.
- Accommodation near the production location is included.
- Salary to be agreed. Salary improvement is possible upon achieving objectives.
- Possibility of promotion.

Candidates will work in Zwingen (postal code: 4222) /Switzerland.

This job announcement is directly from the company.

Please send your complete application documents (CV, education certificates, work references), including salary expectation and your earliest possible starting date in English to labor@marryjane.ch

Contact person

Mr.Stefan van Hove / +41767431552